Registered Massage Therapist Winnipeg - A person who works with energy fields surrounding the animal or human body is actually known as an energy healer. The fields of energy that surround living things have been known as chi, qi, chakra body, aura body, or the energy body. To an energy healer, the term is not as important as the effects of working with it.

Healing with energy fields is an important component to whatever holistic healing plan because the energy fields surrounding our human body and the other things surrounding us are intimately associated to our whole health. Energy work is related with the gateway of the Spirit. The Body Gateway is linked with physical healing, the Mind Gateway is linked to emotional and mental healing and the Spirit Gateway is related with energy healing.

It is usually believed by various energy healers that every dis-ease originates from and could be healed through working along with the energy body. Like for example, if you have respiratory issues, you may have a block around your lungs. Once an energy healer unblocks that particular area, your respiratory issues must vanish or lessen.

Depending on the system they work with, energy healers function in various ways. The basics are as follows: unblocking, re-routing, charging with light and exorcizing negative fields. Your local spiritual bookstore or metaphysical store might be able to put you in touch with an energy healer if you feel this can be best for you.
