Naturopathic Doctors in Winnipeg - Richard Bartlett, a Chiropractor and Naturopath developed a transformative healing system referred to as Matrix Energetics during 1997 after he experienced a life-changing event. Mr. Bartlett discovered that he can restore the physical, spiritual, mental and emotional balance within his patients just by touching them softly with focused intent. As an additional bonus, he can correct misalignments that had bothered some of his patients for numerous years. Richard discovered that he could teach anyone this particular method that combines subtle energy with quantum physics, focused intent, and active imagination.

The body is a resonating matrix that has a biological field of information. According to the philosophy behind Matrix Energetics, the patterns in this matrix could become disrupted through physical or emotional injury. These interruptions can cause ingrained perceptions or habits which can block an individual from reaching a condition of prosperity, health, happiness and various constructive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, shift these ingrained patterns and alter core beliefs so as to allow the individual to acquire their goals to be able create the kind of life and quality of life desired.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics believe that preconceived notions of restrictions are the basis of a patient's problems and that these restrictions can be removed right away through the healing system of Matrix Energetics. This healing system is thought to remove the sources of both chronic and temporary concerns such as emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms, scoliosis and fibromyalgia among others.

The Matrix Energetics system is intended to stand alone. A lot of practitioners utilize it to be able to enhance various healing methods even if it does not need to be at all combined along with whatever other practice. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the client and could change her or his beliefs regarding the healing process, the structure of reality and the nature of disease. Commonly, recipients can feel a wave pass throughout their bodies because their previous view of reality is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, time and space are not part of reality. The consciousness of an individual, according to the quantum theory, could have an effect on how subatomic particles behave. As the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear everywhere at the same time and also move backward or forward in time. A person's consciousness can have an effect on these quanta to transform emotions and physical matter. This particular information and these views have been integrated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the shifts that take place on the cellular level in the patient.
